

CEPIS
Council of European Professional
Informatics Societies

Welcome to the June issue of CEPIS member update. Congratulate the German Informatics Society, Accenture Slovakia and PeopleCert Group on receiving the DiversIT Charter Gold certificate, have a look at our new infographics and register for the ITPE webinar on Women in Tech on 23 June. Discover all this and more below!

Three new recipients of DiversIT Charter Gold

At the CEPIS reception in Athens on 4 May, CEPIS announced the awarding of the DiversIT Charter Gold level to three applicants: the German Informatics Society (GI), PeopleCert Group and Accenture Slovakia.

Read the full article.

New infographics about CEPIS

We have produced two new infographics about CEPIS. The first one is aimed at the general public and briefly shows what CEPIS stands for. The second one is designed for our Member Societies and their members.

Read the full article.

Register for webinar on Women in Tech on 23 June

On 23 June, ITPE, together with ALL DIGITAL, will hold a webinar themed “Women in tech – what role should companies play?”.

Read the full article.

CIS SIN to hold mini conference on informatics teacher education

The Computing in Schools Special Interest Network (CIS SIN) will hold a mini conference on informatics teacher education in Bratislava on 21 June at 13:00 CEST.

Read the full article.

New white paper on gender gap in IT sector

The Association of the Internet Industry “eco” has released a white paper entitled ‘Girls in Tech: A Call to Action’. The paper examines the status quo of women in the Internet industry and analyses the causes of the gender gap in the IT sector.

Read the full article.

More news

Digital Assembly taking place as hybrid event 21-22 June

New deadline for Digital Europe proposals and Digital Identity Wallet

Upcoming events

21 June Computing in Schools SIN mini-conference. Bratislava, Slovakia

21-22 June 2022 Digital Assembly. Toulouse, France/Online

23 June Webinar "Women in tech – what role should companies play?"

23-24 June Annual Privacy Forum 2022. Warsaw, Poland