

CEPIS
Council of European Professional
Informatics Societies

Latest from CEPIS

Welcome to the April edition of our Member Update. Grab your final chance to register for the OCG/CEPIS conference on Computer Science in Education, explore the new CCS Women initiative, and read about the latest EU policy developments, public consultations and funding opportunities. Discover all this and more below!

News from CEPIS

Final Chance to Register for "Computer Science in Education: By Humans, For Humans"

The Austrian Computer Society (OCG), together with CEPIS, will be hosting an international symposium titled "Computer Science in Education: By Humans, for Humans" on May 13–14, 2025. The event will take place at the OCG headquarters in Vienna's first district. There are a few spaces still available, so we hope to see you there!

Read more

News from our community

CCS-Women and Digital Security Authority to Host Networking Event on Gender Diversity in ICT

The Cyprus Computer Society's new initiative, CCS-Women, in collaboration with the Digital Security Authority – NCC-CY, will host its first free networking event titled "Creating Synergies: Promoting Gender Diversity and Inclusion in ICT".

Read more

Policy news

AI Office Launches Survey to Expand Living Repository of AI Literacy Practices

The EU AI Office has launched a new survey inviting all organisations to share their AI literacy initiatives for inclusion in its growing living repository, established under Article 4 of the AI Act.

Read more

European Commission's New Funding Calls to Focus on Digital Skills

The European Commission has launched four new calls under the Digital Europe Programme, committing €140 million to accelerate the deployment of key digital technologies, with a strong emphasis on developing advanced digital skills across the EU. The calls are open until 2 September 2025.

Read more

Have Your Say: Submit Feedback on European AI in Science Strategy

The European Commission has launched four new calls under the Digital Europe Programme, committing €140 million to accelerate the deployment of key digital technologies, with a strong emphasis on developing advanced digital skills across the EU. The calls are open until 2 September 2025.

Read more

Cedefop Releases Publications on Adapting VET for Green and Digital Future

The European Centre for the development of Vocational Training (Cedefop) has recently released several publications as part of its “AI futures of work” project. The first report summarises the first results of Cedefop’s survey on AI in jobs. The second publication, “VET needs to go digital”, draws on Cedefop’s second European Skills and Jobs Survey (ESJS2) to advocate for a renewed digital skills push in VET. The third is a practical guide for “Meeting skill needs for the green transition.”

Read more

Commission Launches Public Consultation on Apply AI Strategy

The European Commission has launched a public consultation and call for evidence on its forthcoming Apply AI Strategy, open from 9 April to 4 June 2025. The Strategy aims to accelerate the adoption of AI across key strategic sectors—including energy, defence, mobility, biotechnology, and advanced manufacturing—while boosting European competitiveness and enhancing public services.

Read more

in Share

 Forward

CEPIS

Rue des Colonies 11
1000 Brussels
Belgium

You are receiving this email because you are representative of, or affiliated with, a CEPIS Member Society. If you no longer wish to receive emails